Operation Food Pantry Quite often the local pantry will let us know what they are in need of and we do our best to get the word out. We thought we would kick it up a notch! You can now donate food to the pantry at Borough Hall, M-F 8:30-4:30. The basket is located right inside the main doors. Look for our Facebook posts and messages on Instagram to see what the pantry needs. If you are headed to the Community Center you can bring your donations there as well, the bucket is in the lobby.

1st Friday Music Series Join us in the Community Room for a variety of musicians and singers on the first Friday of every month from 8-9PM. The Community Room is located down the main hall, last room on the right. Look for musician updates on our website or Facebook. Cost: Donation for the local food pantry.

April 1st Singer-Songwriter Morgan Pinkstone has been writing and performing original music across the Philadelphia area for the past six years. As the songwriter and front woman for the band, Swedeland, Pinkstone established herself as a powerful vocalist with a way of spinning a phrase.

Influenced heavily by 1960's era soul, classic rock, Americana and jazz, Pinkstone's original songs are a soulful mixture of rock and folk music.

May 6th May's concert will be in the gym with the Borough's Annual Art Show.

Palmyra Art Show The Art Show will showcase our centers programs and Palmyra local artwork for your viewing pleasure or purchase. A family event highlighting our talented community. Interested artists please email the community center for more information.

Date: Friday May 6th Time: 7-9pm Where: Community Center
